Description

Boer War / WW1 British Army Officer's Brown Leather Revolver Holster. L 306 - L 306

This is a Boer War / WW1 era British Army Officer's brown leather holster for a revolver. The holster is in very good condition and retains a nice patina. It has the faint shape of a revolver cylinder, possibly has been used for a Boer War era British Bulldog revolver. The long straight side measures 8". It has a fold over flap secured with a leather strap over a steel button. The flap has the remains of a folded stitched edge. On the reverse it has a leather loop which is stitched and riveted with two steel rivets. The belt loop would accept a 2" belt. All the stitching on the holster (apart from the folded seam on the flap edge) is present and secure. This is a very nice Boer War era holster. The price includes UK delivery. L 306
