Description

This new lock knife from Anglo Arms has a beautiful Rose Wood handle and ornate, embossed steel bolster. A great looking and functional lock knife with an excellent build quality.

The knife has a liner lock mechanism, press the lever inside the handle to the left to release the blade. The lock is very solid and the blade will not close in on your hand whilst in use.

The blade is stainless steel, drop point shaped and very sharp. It has dual thumb studs on the blade for quick and easy opening with one hand (left or right).

The steel bolster as a lovely detailed pattern embossed giving the knife real character, with the lovely colour of the rose wood handle this knife gets top marks, especially at such a reasonable price.
